of poem the road not taken by robert frost

June 3rd, 2020 - the road not taken is an ambiguous poem that allows the reader to think about choices in life whether to go with the mainstream or go it alone if life is a journey this poem highlights those times in life when a decision has to be made which way will you go the ambiguity springs from the question of free will versus determinism whether the speaker in the poem consciously decides to'
